

Section Three. Parking Rights. Ownership of each Lot shall entitle the Owner or Owners thereof to the use of not more than two (2) automobile parking spaces, which shall be as near and convenient to said Lot as reasonably possible, together with the right of ingress and egress in and upon said parking areas. The Association may assign vehicle parking spaces for each Lot. The two automobile parking spaces for Lots having garages shall be the garage and the appurtenant driveway.

Section Three. Quiet Enjoyment. No obnoxious or offensive activity shall be carried on upon the Properties, nor shall anything be done which may be or may become a nuisance or annoyance to the neighborhood.

Section Five. Nuisances. No activity deemed noxious or offensive by the Architectural Control Committee shall be carried on upon any Lot or within the Common Area, nor shall anything be done thereon which may be or may become an annoyance or nuisance to the neighborhood as determined by said Architectural Control Committee. Examples of such offensive activities shall include, but to be limited to, the origination or emission of any loud or disturbing noise or vibrations; the maintenance of an auto repair site, the maintenance of unsightly outdoor storage of personal property (including toys, motorcycles or other motor vehicles, tricycles, bicycles, wood piles or other miscellaneous items) on porches, patios, terraces or yards; or similar unsightly activity not in keeping with the aesthetic character and high level of appearance of the community. The Architectural Control Committee, with the approval of the Board of Directors, may establish reasonable rules and regulations for enforcing the provisions of this Section Five.

Section Six. Parking of Vehicles and Use of Property. No commercial vehicle, house trailer, boat, boat trailer, camper, tent, shed, or any other such vehicle, trailer, vessel or temporary structure shall be permitted to be parked or placed within the Properties except within area(s) which may be specifically designated for such purposes by the Association; provided, however, commercial vehicles, temporary buildings and other structures shall be permitted during the construction period by Declarant or as a temporary real estate sales office or construction office of Declarant. The Lot shall be used for residential purposes. No garage, outbuilding, or other appurtenant structure shall be used for residential purposes, either temporarily or permanently, nor shall any portion of the Property (except as expressly stated in the preceding sentence) be used except for residential purposes and for purposes incidental or necessary thereto. Home offices shall be allowed provided it does not create any traffic other than Owners and Occupants within the Properties. "Residential purposes" means residing in a Lot for any period of time.
